DELIGHTFUL MUSICALE.

Was Tendered Professors Williams and Hughes at the Home of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Chase.

Professor Thomas R. Williams, of Pittston, and E. Vernon Hughes, of Brooklyn, will certainly depart to their homes with the kindliest of feelings with their many old and new made friends in this city. The many receptions already tendered them were supplemented by a musicale, given in their honor at the cosy residence of Mr. and Mrs. William N. Chase, of 136 North Bromley avenue, last night.

An impromptu programme of exerclass was rendered, consisting of recitations and vocal and instrumental selections. Messrs. Williams and Hughes sang as did also Misses Margaret Davir. Sadie Edwards and Mrs. Gwennie Davis, Mrs. J. B, Sweet, recited. Mrs. D. B. Thomas, Mrs. W. N. Chase, Mrs. John James and Miss Sadie Edwards gave musical selections on the plane, It was an informal affair and each participator entered into the zest of the thing equally with the listeners, Later light refreshments were served.

The guests present were: Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Sweet, Professor and Mrs. Thomas R. Williams, Pittston; Professor E. Vernon Hughes, Brooklyn; Mr. and Mrs. Jenkin T. Reese, Mr. and Mrs. John Owens, Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. William R. Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. John Hale. Mr. and Mrs. George T. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. F B. Chase, Mr. and Mrs. John James, Mrs. Gwennie Davis, Misses Margaret Davis, Anna Broadbent, Sadie Edwards, Rachel Jones, Belle Lewis, of Newark; Lou H. Jones, Gomor Davis and Ad Chase,

CHAPTER OF ACCIDENTS.

David Evans, of 158 South Sumner evenue, a fireman on the Delaware Lackawanna and Western railroad, fell from his engine yesterday and was severely injured. He was removed to his home and attended by Dr. B. G. Beckwith. His injuries consist of a se-vere strain and a badly contused back. Mr. Evans was stepping from the tender and fell across the rail. The six-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Smith, of North Sumner avenue, fell a few days ago and struck on his right side against a small express wagen. An abscess regulted and yesterday Drs. Hall, Namar and Beckwith performed an operation, which brought great relief to the little suf-

Yesterday afternoon as a Taylor car, inward bound, was coming along South Main avenue, near Bellevue, it almost ran into a horse attached to a butcher wagon, which was approaching in an opposite direction. The motorman clanged his bell but the house came directly on down the track. The car was stopped just as the horse reared onto the fender. The driver was lying down on the seat fast asleep, and was intoxicated. His narrow escape greatly assisted in sobering him. Had this occurred at night along this particular section, which is dark, horse, yesterday morning about 4 o'clock at his home o'. North Main avenue. He was surrounded by his children when the end came. Mr. Silkman has been a long and patient sufferer from bronchial trou-ble which terminated in a disease of the lungs which caused his death. Mr. Silk-man was born in Katonah, West Ches-ter county, N. Y., July 8, 1820, where he resided until he reached the age of 20 years, when he came to this vicinity and immediately entered the employ of his brother. Aaron, who conducted a carpenter shop at Providence. The brothers shortly afterward formed a partnership and constructed many buildings in the north section of the city. Between the years of 1851 and 1856 he conducted a successful livery business in the rear of the Bristol House. He was later engaged in Bristol House. He was later engaged in the manufacture of axes, which business he conducted successfully for two years. He afterwards embarked in the whole-sale grocery business with his son-in-law, Mr. Winton. The business was continued for twelve years, when Mr. Silkman re tired from business life. In politics Mr. Slikman was a staunch Democrat. and was honored with the nomination for sheriff at the first Democratic conven-tion held in Scranton, which he after-wards declined in favor of W. P. Kirkendall, in order to restore harmony in the ranks of his party. Following this in-cident he retired to private life and by his many acts of kindness endeared him-self to the hearts of many friends. He is survived by a sister, Miss Almira Silk-man, of the North End, and four daugh-ters, Mrs. B. M. Winton, Mrs. E. L. Ful-ler and Miss Hattle Silkman, of this
